Please note that for the club to function, we ask that parents/carers undertake voluntary work with the club from time to time. We also encourage our members parents to gain qualifications through UK Athletics to build the team of coaches so we can offer more activities to more athletes.

If you would be prepared to become a regular volunteer helper at our club and could do more please tick .

Coaches and Volunteers

Please be aware that all coaching staff are volunteers and give their time for free. It may not always be possible for coaching staff to make every scheduled training session. If this happens we will give you as much notice as we can via our facebook and twitter accounts.

Our facebook and twitter account details are on the Knutsford Harriers website
